

This Week: -

Today Welcome to Fr Nigel at St Gwynour's to celebrate Easter Mass. Croeso Tad, a diolch yn fawr!

Tuesday Funeral, Gloria Lewis, St Gwynour's 2 pm

Beautiful!

The churches look beautiful. Thank you to all who made that happen for Easter.

Brother David & Brother Gildas coming soon to St David's. The poet monk from the Caldey Island Community will read from his new book of poetry, Seventh Wave, and sign purchased copies. Gildas, historian, monk, will speak about the wandering Celtic saints Dates tba soon.

Llanrhidian There are too many of us to all park in the Dolphin Sunday mornings. However disabled parking is still kindly offered there. Our thanks to Mike and Karen.

Annual Vestry elections

Please consider offering yourself for election to PCC if you are not on it. There will be a form for this in church.

Gower Confirmations

6th November 10.30 am: Llangenith. Preparation beginning soon. Please let Fr Tim know if you would like to explore whether this is for you at this point in your life.

NE GOWER SERVICE PATTERN

From April, there will be no more 8 am services at St Gwynour's! Missing them already? Instead there will be the following:

9.30 AM – St David's

11.15 AM – St Rhydian & St Illtyd's

11.15 AM – St Gwynour's

Our worship leaders, wardens, together with readers and priests from across Gower will be working with Fr Tim to make this happen.

EASTER SUNDAY

March 27th

Yes
I stretch out
my arms
and bear
your cross
Your fear
that wells up and overflows
your sorrow
that haunts
the most awful pain
you endure
and you cause
I embrace
I gather into myself
with open arms
to swallow it
in love
I drown your No in my Yes
to a deeper Yes
The grave itself I smother
in love
until there is nothing left
but Yes
and still even later and always
my open arms
