Father,
we hold before you
our family in the Diocese of Swansea and Brecon
and we open our hearts and minds to your Spirit: Bless us as we gather in your name;
Guide us as we grow into the likeness of your Son;
Lead us by your Spirit to go out and make disciples of others.
God of our journeying, be our way
and our truth and our life; our beginning and our end.

We pray through Jesus our Lord. Amen.

Epiphany

Awaken to that other deep nativity, not sweet, nor bright, but empty, low and rough,
untouched by desperate activity, where stillness and the longing are enough.
Wait in this wounded darkness, from whose rend,
where roots of death are woven in the earth, a child emerges painfully, to mend with splintered hands the world that gave him birth.
For deep in battered hearts, too cold to feel, where blood and bones and heaven's veins enmesh,
God comes, incarnate, altered, bound to heal the brokenness by living in this flesh.
Awaken. God redeemed this life on Christmas morn:
let your flesh be word made flesh; with God be born.

"Listen to your life. Listen to what happens to you, because it is through what happens to you that God speaks. It's in language that's not always easy to decipher, but it's there, powerfully, memorably, unforgettably."

(from Listening to Your Life Frederick Buechner)
